TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

The Navy Reorganization.

Washington, 24.—Secretary Chandler has addressed a letter to the Chief of each Bureau of the Navy Department, calling attention to the recommendations of the Commission concerning the reorganization of the navy yards and the disposition proposed to be made of each yard. The commands of the various yards have been furnished a copy of the letter and requested to assist in carrying out the plan of the Commission. The Secretary alludes to the statistics of navy yards and says they show an enormous daily expenditure, on the 16th day of November, 1882, namely, for 657 firemen, clerks and employees, other than ordinary mechanics and workmen, $2,179, and $8,805 other employees, $9,189, making 4,462 total employees at a daily compensation of $11,319, or at the rate of $3,000,000 a year, when the only work in progress on ships of war at all the yards was repairing the Omaha, Shenandoah, Trenton, Ossipee, Mahican and Albatross. Secretary Chandler considers this an enormous expenditure for such feeble results and inconsistent with faithful administration.

The Duelists.

Richmond, 24.—Nothing has been heard to-day from Beirne and Elam. It is reported the former is in West Virginia awaiting a new arrangement for a meeting. Elam's whereabouts are not stated. Rumor locates him at various points. When or where the meeting will take place is more a mystery than ever. That it will occur is not doubted. Though the excitement of the past three days has abated, the anxiety and desire to hear from the parties is still intense.

Washington, 25.—It is reported here that Beirne and Elam, the Richmond editors, fought a duel this morning and that Elam was killed. No confirmation.

The Queen.

London, 25.—The Queen's condition has greatly improved. She walked from the train to the carriage on her arrival at Windsor from Balmoral. The Queen invited the painter Angeli to England to take a life-size portrait, which she will present to Emperor William, on the twenty-fifth anniversary of his assumption of the regency of Prussia.

The Big Organ.

Boston, 24.—The suit to restrain the removal of the big organ from Music Hall has been compromised and Wm. O. Grover, purchaser, will begin its removal in May '84, being allowed two months to take it from the hall. The organ will remain in Boston, be improved, and a hall built especially with the view to its accommodation in the rear of the New England Conservatory of Music.

Another Theatre Fire.

London, 25.—Intelligence of a frightful calamity at a place of amusement in Derby, on the shore of Lake Como, is just received. When a performance was in progress at the Puppet Theatre, the structure took fire and was entirely destroyed. Forty-seven lives were lost and twelve others injured.

Why is Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound like the Mississippi river in spring freshet? Because the immense volume of this healing river moves with such momentum that it sweeps away all obstacles and is literally flooding the country.

Starving Fishermen.

Quebec, 25.—Great distress is reported among fishing families along the Labrador coast, owing to the detention of spring supplies by the jam of the gulf ice along their shores. It is feared some deaths from starvation have already occurred.

Capital Chips.

Washington, 25.—Issue of standard silver dollars from the mints for the week ending June 23d, 211,900; corresponding period last year, 205,499. The Hill investigation was resumed this morning.

Hanlon.

Chicago, 25.—Edward Hanlon, champion oarsman, declares his intention to become a resident of this city. He expresses the hope of beating all records this summer and then stop rowing.

Drowned.

Saratoga, 25.—John L. Stryker, a well known New York millionaire, was drowned in Saratoga Lake while bathing. He leaves a bride of two months.

Bob Not Buried.

New York, 24.—Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll, reported from Washington and elsewhere as dead, is enjoying the best of health at Long Branch, Long Island Coast.
